Dear Mr. Sussman:

ER

In the temporary absence of Mr. Dulles from the city, I would like to acknowledge and thank you for your letter of 4 April concerning the Sixteenth Annual Conference of the American Council For Judaism in Denver.

In view of the nature of Mr. Dulles' official position, he has followed a firm policy of declining participation in non-governmental activities. However, your thoughtfulness in asking him to send a message to your group is indeed appreciated and, upon his return, I shall bring this to his attention.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
